Bonsparte having on his departure for the island of Elba promised his confidential friends to return in the violet season, his adherents adopted the above simple flower as a rallying signal. "Corporal Violet" became their favorite toast, and each was distinfavorite toast, and each was distin-guished by a gold ring with a violet in enamel and the motto, "Elle re-parattra au printemps!" (It will ap-pear again in spring.) As soon as it became generally known that he had landed at Frejus a multitude of the women of Paris were seen with bas-kets full of these flowers, which were purchased and worn by his friends without exciting the least suspicion. It was customary on meeting any one thus decorated to ask, "Aimez vous la violette?" (Do you like the violet?) when, if they answered, "Oui" (yes). it was certain the party was not a confederate. But if the reply was "Eh blen" (well) they recognized an adherent and completed the sentence, 'Elle reparaitra au printemps!"

Path Breaker For Lightning. In the "Annalen der Physik" there is a paper by Herr Walter on the genesis of lightning in which he shows that lightning flashes are preceded by minor flashes, which, as it were, feel the way and mark the course for the major flash or flashes. Something of the kind path, once marked, is utilized for further discharges; hence photographs of lightning taken with a moving camera may show more than one flash. One picture shows three main flashes at intervals of .0177 and .0480 parts of a second between. Of course to the average of the control of the course for the average of the course for the average of the course for the average of the course for the cours second between. Of course to the eye they seemed one flash. Another picture showed five flashes lasting altogether a quarter of a second.
